David Rowland

Internationally recognized designer and creator of the 40/4 chair. A man dedicated to purposeful design. Much of this dedication has been directed toward studying the complex problems of mass seating. The results of Mr. Rowland's studies are undeniably expressed in the 40/4 chair.

Museum Permanent Collection

The 40/4 is part of the Permanent Collections at the Museum of Modern Art, New York City; the Musée des Arts Décoratifs, Palais du Louvre, Paris; The Art Institute of Chicago; Victoria and Albert Museum, London and the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York.

Thirteenth Triennale Di Milano

At the Thirteenth Triennale International Exhibit in Milan, Italy, the 40/4 was awarded Grand Prix for design of a single object. David Rowland is only the second American to win a first prize at this well-known and respected exposition.

A.I.D. Award

The 1965 A.I.D. International Design Award was presented to the 40/4 chair for excellence of design in business furniture.

Stacking

40/4's are so named because 40 chairs stack 4 feet high. A smooth tilting action allows the chairs to be stacked and unstacked quickly and easily. The 40/4 Dolly allows them to be moved easily by one person and stored compactly.

Material

Seat and back are made from moulded plywood veneer 9 mm. Supported by a strong steel frame, from assenthal steel, with a 10 mm and 11mm diameter.
